Olivet to Calvary.

The choir of St. Paul's church, assisted by Mr. Kenneth Ogden, tenor, will sing "Olivet to Calvary," by J. H. M under, Thursday evening, April 19th, at eight o'eleck.

"Olivet to Calvary" recalls simply and reverently the scenes which mark the last few days of the Saviour's life on earth, and some of the reflections suggested thereby. The rejoicing of the multitude with hosannas and palms, the view of Jerusalem from the steep of Olivet, the lament over the beautiful city, the scene in the femple, and the lonely walk back over the Mount at night, form the chief leatures of the first

Part II. opens with the Supper of the Passover, at which Jesus washes His discusses' feet, and gives to His friends the new commandment of love for one another as the sign of true discipleship. From this the scene passes to the tribate pathos of the Garden of Gothsemane, the sudden appearance of the hostile crowd, Jesus forsaken by His disciples, His utter loneliness among ruthless foes, the tumult before Pilate in the Judgment Hall, the Passage of the Cross, the tragedy and triumph of

The choir has had this work in preparation some weeks and expected to have sung it during Lent, but the delay in completing the new organ and chancel made it preessary to postpone its rendi-

The deceased was in his 86th year. He was a son of the late William Herbert and a brother of Col. Arthur Herbert. He brother of Col. Arthur Herbert. He was born at Shooters' Hill in Fairfax county, near this city, and had resided in this neighborhood throughout most of his long life. At the outbreak of the Mexican war he was a lieutenant in Captain Fairfax's company in which he served during that conflict. At the cloe of hostilities he returned to Fairfax county, where he had since resided. In the latter part of the fifties, when the Ladies Mount Vernor. the latter part of the fifties, when the Ladies Mount Vernon Association took charge of the home of Washington, he became superintendent, a position he held for years, being in charge of the property during the civil war. He property during the civil war. He later removed to his estate near Burke's station and was engaged in farming up to a comparatively recent period. The decessed left no children. His wife, who was alies Sarah Tracey, died ab ut ten years ago. Captain Herbert was a true type of the old-time Virginia country gentlemen, and throughout his long life enjoyed the respect and confidence of all who knew him.

A colored excursion train from Rich- supply and prices were unchanged. mond for Washington passed over the Washington Southern Railway yesterday. he train stopped at the union depot when a colored woman with a two-year-o'd baby alighted. She asked one of the colored porters to take charge of the child for a few moments, but when the train was starting she boarded one of the cars and left the baby with the porter. The child made some attempts to talk when it was learned that its name to talk when it was learned that its name deput when a colored woman with a twowas Mau l. Special Officer L. Hardin ing. A colored woman in whose house later went to Washington in search of the robbery is alleged to have taken fellow-passengers called her attention to the fact that she had left her baby, and that the woman replied: "It makes no cryster when seen by the witness. Green difference. It was not my child." The special officer communicated with the Washington police and the woman was identified and compelled to return to the depot and take charge of the baby. She was accompanied on the return trip by a colored man from Washington.

Visitors to the City.

The city has been thronged today with members of the Daughters of the American Revolution now in session in Washington. Numbers of male escorts have accompanied the members of the organization. All the points of interest have been inspected by the vis-Electric cars crowded with passengers have passed down in sections for Mount Vernon. As is usually the case, numbers of enterprising boys, both white and colored, have followed the visitors and offered their services as guides. These youths hazard life and limb in boarding and alighting from moving trains, and the attention of the olice has been called to their temerity. Besides the importunities of these wouldbe guides often prove an annoyance to Rechabites.

Perservance Tent, No. 1007, I. O. of R., held their weekly meeting last night. Three names was proposed for member-ship and one candidate was initiated. After the business of the tent had been transacted the doors were opened for an open meeting and quite a large number of friends entered. The following programme was rendered: Open ode by all; reading by R. H. Bartlett; piano duet; reading by Geo. Jamieson; piano solo by Miss Langford; recitations; reading by Richard Rambe; piano duet; ding by Herman Godfrey; music by Lambert Sullivan; solo by Miss Thomp son, of Washington; reading by Mr. Thompson, of Washington; cornet solo; vocal solo by Mr. Cary, and piano solo by Mr. R. Oysters.

This is the last oyster month until September. The season hereabouts has in no wise been brisk, but few large and well-flavored bivalves having reached this city. Most of the finest specimens are placed on steamers and trains and sent to other markets where they command fancy prices. There were, how-ever, some good varieties at the wharf this morning. They ranged in price from 60 cents to $1 per bushel.

Opera House.

The Jolly Bonnie Vance Company opened a week's engagement at the Opera House last night in "Our Flats," a three act comedy full of good situations and a laugh from start to finish. The company is composed of a number of good comedians, who kept the audience in a roar of laughter. The part of John Smith was taken by Ralph Brownie in an excellent manner, while the parts of an excellent manner, while the parts of Thursday next.
